

Identification numbers:

Object number: 63.24/2

Other number:

Micromusée V6 SN 10891

Identification:

Identification: Medieval iron spearhead

Identification: spearhead

Description:

Description: Lanceolate, with a semicircular cut on either side, at the widest part of the blade; a short socket, with remains of side-straps.

Collection record:

Locality: Llandough Church Farm Llandough

Object coordinates:

National Grid Reference ST168733

OS 1:10,000 Sheet ST 17 SE

Notes: c. 1858, when new buildings erected, 'About six skeletons of big men were also found in the same place...buried with a lot of shells, limpet or cookie'.

Material and Technique:

Material:

iron

Creation/Production:

Occupation/Role:

Production

Period, dating:

Medieval (c.1070-c.1500)

Occupation/Role:

Production

Period, dating:

15th century

Notes: possibly

Legal status:

Status: Current

Acquisition:

Entry number: 1963.24

Acquisition date: 08/02/1963

Number of objects: 3

Acquisition method: donation

Previous owner name:

Tag:

Person/body

Name:

Address:

Name/Corporate name:

Address: Cogan Pill

Town/City: Penarth

Record created: 10 November 1998 00:00:00

Entry date: 08/02/1963

Storage information:

Object status: Object in the collection

Permanent location: box M02.03

Location status: location verified by NMB

Location date: 03/10/2002

Condition control:

Status: Current

Keyword:

Subject/theme:

not verified

System info:

Record created: 03 May 1995 00:00:00

Record created by:

Last update: 25 March 2003 15:15:43

Record updated by:

Record status: Validated record