

FORENSIC QUESTIONS FOR THE COURT/COMMISSION

IN THE MATTER OF TY MAWR (GREAT HOUSE FARM), LLANDOUGH

DATE: February 12, 2026

INSTRUCTIONS FROM: Sion Buckler, Esq., Executive Representative for the Manor of Llandough

ON BEHALF OF: The Restored House of Williams

SUBJECT: Forensic Reconstruction of Multi-Generational Dispossession, Narrative Fraud, and Institutional Malfeasance

PART I: FORENSIC QUESTIONS FOR THE COURT/COMMISSION

The following interrogatories are submitted without prejudice to identify "Material Omissions" and "Procedural Anomalies" that signify a prima facie failure of justice requiring investigation.

I. Questions Regarding Identity and Narrative Fraud

1. On the "Mrs. Buckler" Weaponization: By what legal evidence was the maiden name of Mrs. Mary Williams—the legal successor to the 1667 title—substituted for the name "Mrs. Buckler" in all formal court notices and licenses from 1974 onward? ²
2. On the "Litigation Finger" Trap: Did the respondent knowingly point the "litigating finger" at a manufactured identity ("Mrs. Buckler") to subvert the discovery of the independent, ancestral rights of the true occupant? [1, 1]
3. On Mistake and Rectification: Does the imposition of a non-existent name to secure land title constitute a "Mistake" under the Land Registration Act 2002, Schedule 4, thereby justifying the immediate rectification of the register? ³

II. Questions Regarding Latin Misapplication and Status Displacement

4. On Animus Domini vs. Animus Possidendi: Why did the 1987 proceedings in BP Properties Ltd v Buckler confine the inquiry to animus possidendi (the intent to possess as a squatter) while systematically excluding animus domini (the intent to own as the rightful holder of the soil)? ²

5. On the Precarium Doctrine: Did the court's decision to categorize Mrs. Williams' stay as a precarium (a permissive holding) effectively strip her of her status of possessio ad usucapionem (possession leading to ownership), and was this achieved through a license addressed to a non-existent person? ²
6. On the Meeting of Minds: If a 1974 unilateral license was addressed to "Mrs. Buckler"—a persona that never existed as a claimant—can there be any legal basis for a "meeting of minds" (consensus ad idem), or was "silence" manufactured to halt the adverse possession clock? ²

III. Questions Regarding Heritage and Archaeological Omission

7. On Actual Notice (1870): Since the Williams family discovery of a Roman soldier in armor was reported as early as 1870 [Image 3], providing "Actual Notice" of the site's significance, why was this evidence suppressed to allow a 1987 classification of the property as a "ruined barn"? ¹
8. On Statutory Bypass: Was the 1988 demolition of the 13th-century monastic grange conducted with "targeted malice" to ensure that heritage protections under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 could never be triggered? ¹
9. On the Marconi Omission: Why was the documented residency of Guglielmo Marconi at Ty Mawr during his 1897 wireless experiments excluded from the site's historical and planning assessments during development? ¹

PART II: REPARATIVE JUSTIFICATION AND QUANTIFICATION

Should the above questions be resolved in favor of the Restored House of Williams, the following restitutionary framework is established as the professional baseline for restorative justice.

1. DECLARATORY RESTORATION OF STATUS

1.1 The Applicant identifies the officiation of standing as the primary remedial aim. This action seeks a judicial declaration that the family are the restored successors in title and estate of Ty Mawr, Llandough, by continuous lawful occupation dating from 1667.

1.2 Chain of Title: One Degree from the Crown: Reclaiming the 1667 title restores a status standing in a direct historical sequence from the Royal Grant. By succeeding the Herbert family (the immediate grantees of Henry VIII following the 1543 Dissolution), the Williams lineage established a possessory interest just one degree removed from the Royal Prerogative. [1, 1]

1.3 The Merger of Two Dynasties: The union of Mrs. Mary Williams and Frederick Buckler represented a merger of the indigenous Welsh "Living Title" and the historic English architectural dynasty of Charles Alban Buckler. The weaponization of the name "Mrs. Buckler" was a "Latent Fraud" that successfully suppressed the family's superior status. [1, 1]

2. SCHEDULE OF LOSS AND QUANTIFICATION (£197.5M)

Head of Damage	Forensic Justification	Amount
Estate & Hope Value Loss	70 acres at Prime Regional rates (£750k/acre) based on 1988 "fortune" press record. ¹⁰	£52,500,000
Restitutionary Disgorgement	"Cumulative benefit extracted" from development + 35 years interest (Rukhadze Principle). ¹¹	£115,000,000
Historical & Manorial Restoration	Cultural value of the 1215-era grange, manorial lordship, and Marconi ties. ¹	£10,000,000
Archaeological Expropriation	Penalty for intentional destruction of burial site despite 1870 "Actual Notice." ⁷	£5,000,000
Multi-Gen Collective Trauma	35 years of "bus living" displacement and "Loss of Life Chances" for 25 descendants. ¹	£5,000,000
Wrongful Death Estate Claims	Claims brought by personal representatives for the stress-induced deaths of Mrs. Williams and Billy Buckler. ¹	£5,000,000
Aggravated & Exemplary	Sanction for the 4am poleaxe eviction with	£5,000,000 children present [Image 7]. 15

TOTAL QUANTUM		£197,500,000

3. LEGAL BASIS FOR ACTION

3.1 Fraud Unpicks Judgment: Under Takhar v Gracefield Developments Ltd, a judgment obtained through "Material Concealment" of a possessor's true identity and intent (animus domini) must be set aside.⁹

3.2 Equality and Succession: The heir-apparent to the Manorial Lordship has Down syndrome. Any obstruction to his recognition would engage the Equality Act 2010 and the United Kingdom's international disability-rights obligations.¹

CONCLUSION

The Applicant respectfully requests an Inquiry into Damages following the declaration of the family's restored status. The dispossession of the Williams family was a constitutional anomaly achieved through institutional avoidance and the fraudulent substitution of nuda detentio (mere holding) for ownership. Reclaiming this title restores a house that stands just one degree from the Crown.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sion Buckler, Esq.

Executive Representative for the Manor of Llandough
on behalf of the Restored House of Williams
