2.1 Farmhouse nomenclature

- farmhouse — normal modern functional term for the principal dwelling.
- farm house — spaced form appearing in historical/public material.
- the house — contextual shorthand where the surrounding citation makes clear that the Great House farmhouse is meant.
- principal dwelling — descriptive category used here for clarity; not presented as a historical property name.

2.2 Scope

This page does not make "farmhouse" a synonym for the whole farm or for Parcel A. The farmhouse is the building. Parcel A is the full 1877 house/quarrying estate: house/buildings, barn, stable and yard west of the house, garden, north forest, and south-east ground later registered as VG41. Parcel B is the separate eastern agricultural fields. Mary's later defence of the occupied house/buildings/garden group was not the full geographical extent of Parcel A. On the title case, resting on Mary (Nancy) Williams's c.1974 witness statement (Mary (Nancy) Williams testimony), the 1877 arrangement took effect in 1928. [SOURCE PENDING] The 1955 enforcement of Parcel B also seized the north forest and south-east green under "whole farm" wording.

2.3 Colour key

The farmhouse family uses blue shades. Within this family, darker or lighter blue is used to distinguish individual nomenclature variants when linked elsewhere.

Cross-links across the naming system: Use Great House Farm — Name & Location Variations to compare the distinct building, place and parcel labels across the site. For the separate historical Cedwyn / Cydfin place-name research branch, consult GHF-E173 — complete reference index. Similar names are research leads and do not, by themselves, prove identical boundaries, ownership or title.
